Scripture and History

Daniel 6:16-23 So the king ordered Daniel to be brought and cast into the lions' den. To Daniel he said, "Your God, whom you serve so constantly, must save you." To forestall any tampering, the king sealed with his own ring and the rings of the lords the stone that had been brought to block the opening of the den.

Then the king returned to his palace for the night; he refused to eat and he dismissed the entertainers.

Since sleep was impossible for him, the king rose very early the next morning and hastened to the lions' den. As he drew near, he cried out to Daniel sorrowfully, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you serve so constantly been able to save you from the lions?"

Daniel answered the king: "O king, live forever! My God sent his angel and closed the lions' mouths so that they have not hurt me. For I have been found innocent before him; neither have I done you any harm, O king!"

This gave the king great joy. At his order Daniel was brought up from the den; he was found to be unharmed because he trusted in his God.

Matthew 7:13 [Jesus said,] "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction, and those who enter through it are many."

Matthew 24:30-31 [Jesus said,] "And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming upon the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he will send out his angels with a trumpet blast, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other."

Proverbs 4:14, 4:18 <sup>14</sup>The path of the wicked do not enter, nor walk in the way of the evil; <sup>18</sup>But the path of the just is like shining light, that grows in brilliance till perfect day.
